Mother's Day is coming. Here are two cards for some great moms.

Dear Mom,
Thank you for doing so much for us. You always make three meals and do a lot of housework for us. You teach us how to be a good person. You usually say "Love your family first." "Always be nice to other people." You let us learn many things from you. You are so great. We all love you very much! By the way, we are having a big dinner at a nice restaurant on your special day!
Caroline

Hi, Mom:
Your big day is coming. This card is for you. Thanks for making delicious meals for me. I don't like school lessons , and I'm poor at math. I never get good grades , but you aren't angry at me. You teach me math and help me with my homework after work every evening. You are a very wonderful mom! Love you!
Eddie

Sunday is a fun day for me. I clean the house with my father that day from morning to evening. Why is this so much fun? Well, my father plays our favorite songs and we sing together when we work. We mop the floor, and wipe the tables and windows. My father and I do the work quickly because we both want the first prize — a big steak cooked by my mom! My mom is a good cook. I love everything she makes. It's alright if I don't win the first prize because the second prize is also good — two pieces of fried chicken!

43. What does the writer do on Sunday?

- (A) He dances with his father
- (B) He sings with his mother.
- (C) He works with his father all day.
- (D) He eats in a restaurant with his parents.

44. Why does the writer want to finish quickly what he does ?

- (A) So he can go out with his friends.
- (B) So he can make fried chicken.
- (C) So he can sing and dance.
- (D) So he can eat the steak.

People in Los Angeles, California, can have a cup of coffee and play with dogs at the same time at a dog café. The owner of the café, Susan Silver, loves dogs so much. Every dog in the café comes from a shelter. They don't have homes, and may be put to sleep if no one takes them home. Susan does not like this so she helps the dogs and finds them new homes. She also keeps some dogs at her café. She hopes that there are more cafés like this one, so more dogs will not die.

Now there are six dogs at Susan's café. You can pay $10 to have a cup of coffee and play with the dogs for 1 hour.
