School isn't easy for students, but it's also not easy for teachers. Teachers work very hard at school and they have to do a lot of work at home. They also need to deal with(處理) students' problems.

So why do teachers teach? They teach because they really care about their students. They do not ask for anything. They just want to see their students grow. Teachers need to teach their students many things. They teach them how to study, how to get along with other people, and how to make a plan for their future. Teachers are smarter than you. They know a lot of things. If you listen to your teachers, they can teach you more.

How can you respect(尊敬) your teachers? It's not that difficult. Just come to class, pay attention, and do good work. If you do these things, your teachers will be on top of the world. It is a good way to say thank you to show them your respect.

54. Which is true?

- (A) School is not easy for both students and teachers.
- (B) Teachers teach because they are smarter than you.
- (C) You can show your respect to teachers by dealing with their problems.

【G】第60-62 題

Dear Mr. Adams,

I'm writing to you because I really need your help. In the basketball game last weekend, we almost won the game. However, I made a terrible mistake, and the team lost because of that. I said sorry many times and even cried. After the game, many people in the class hate me. They speak ill (說壞話) of me.

This Monday, it was Jack and Ben's turn to mop the floor after school, but they made me do it for them. They also threw my science report away, so I had to spend five hours doing it again. Also, this Tuesday, Frank and Wills didn't let me go to the restroom. When I finally had a chance to use the restroom, they kept shouting my name outside. I was afraid and stayed in the restroom until the class started. When I got into the classroom, Mrs. White was not happy because I was late. Today, before I went home, Jack and Wills had me take out the trash for them. It was their job, not mine. Mr. Adams, please help me. I am so frustrated (感到沮喪的) these days.

Thanks,
 Nick

Dear Nick,

Thank you for telling me. I'm so sorry to know about all those things. They can't treat you like that just because you made a mistake in the basketball game. I will talk to the class tomorrow, and I will also have a chat with those boys one by one after school. Please don't worry.

Best,
 Dan Adams

60. Why do Nick's classmates hate Nick?

 (B) Frank and Wills didn't let him use the restroom at school.
 (C) Jack and Ben shouted his name and threw books at him.
 (D) Jack and Ben made him mop the floor for them.

62. Which is NOT true?

- (A) Mr. Adams will help Nick and talk to the other boys.
- (B) Nick said sorry and cried after the basketball game.
- (C) Nick is having a hard time at school these days.
- (D) Nick didn't use the restroom all day on Tuesday.

【H】第63-64 題

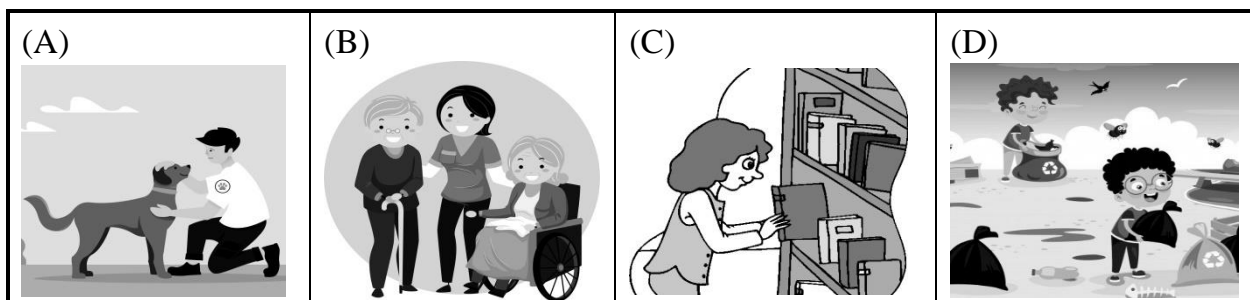

Volunteers help others. No one pays them. They like their work. Many places welcome volunteers. Animal shelters want volunteers. They clean cages. They feed and water the animals. They walk dogs and pet cats. Volunteers can also help clean up public places. They may pick up trash in parks and on beaches. Then everyone can enjoy those places. Volunteers are very helpful.

How do you find a place to volunteer? First, what do you enjoy doing? If you like books, volunteer the local library. Next, what are your skills? If you're good with children, be a volunteer for a youth program. How much time do you have to volunteer? Start with an hour or two a week. You can add more hours later.

Volunteering shows respect for your neighbors and your community. It also makes a difference in the world. You can feel good about that.

63. According to the article, which place is NOT mentioned for us to volunteer?

64. Who is the suitable(適合的) person to be a volunteer?

- (A) Jerry: A teenager who enjoys working and making money at the same time.
- (B) Rick: An office worker who loves to help people, but has to work from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.
- (C) Kelly: A young girl who is not afraid to be dirty when working.
- (D) Zoe: A vet who is very skillful in taking care of animals, but she doesn't like this job.
