Dear Jenny,

How is your holiday? I am here in Thailand with my family. We are having so much fun staying here.

Our tour guide told us an interesting festival in Thailand today. It is the Monkey Festival. People living in that town Lopburi celebrate the festival in November every year. On this special day, the town prepares a big buffet for the monkeys. There are different kinds of food like sausages, coconut milk tarts, fresh tropical fruit from Hawaii, ice cream, and jelly! Local people think that giving food to the monkeys may bring them good luck.

I hope I can visit Thailand again during the festival, and I even want to visit other cities like Bangkok. I can't wait to share more with you! See you at school 10 days later!

Sincerely yours,
Karen
