Marcia Smith has a daughter named Angelina. Her daughter looks different from other girls of her age. She isn't able to say any word clearly because of her sausage lips. She used to be very shy, and she often hid from people. When she needed to talk about something in class with her classmates, she usually shouted at them angrily and treated them badly. This made her mom be in big trouble. However, one of Marcia Smith's posts on Instagram has changed the girl's life. The following is the post.

Mia

Charades is my favorite game. Believe it or not, I can play this game all day long.

Marcia Smith

You can say that again. It's really exciting.

Joe

Wow! Angelina enjoys her own show time a lot! Her lips are full and cute!

If she becomes an actress, she'll do well on her job.

Marcia Smith

I've heard a lot of people saying so before.

Maybe it's time for me to think about it seriously and help my girl dig for her talents to the full.

Joe

I can't agree with you more. Remember to make good use of her ability, and you'll create a star successfully.

Thanks to Joe, Marcia Smith found some silent acting jobs for Angelina. She was very good at showing herself to people and soon became very famous. Now we can see her pictures on many types of social networking websites. Through lots of acting, Angelina gets along with people, and her face is often full of joy. Her mom is satisfied with her difference and proud of her.

Ask Emily is a column. Here, teenagers can send in questions about their school and home life to Dr. Emily Smith.

Dear Emily,

I want to keep my mom out of my social life. This morning, I opened Instagram and saw a follow request from my mom! I don't want my mother to follow me on Instagram, but I'm afraid she'll be angry or hurt if I don't accept her request. I have nothing to hide from her. I just want my own space. My friends and I share photos and experiences without our parents looking over our shoulders on Instagram. How can I make my mother understand my feelings? I need some help!

Stacy

Dear Stacy,

Before you think of ways to keep your mom off your Instagram, you need to think about what you are sharing. Are you sharing something bad? If not, then maybe you shouldn't be too worried about it. Just tell your mom how you feel. Also, remember that nothing you share online is private.

You need to be careful with it.

Dr. Emily Smith

Roads are dangerous places. It can be especially dangerous for the elderly and the young. About one thousand children were hurt or killed on the roads last year. About six hundred children were hurt and four died just crossing the street.

Another hundred were hit and one was killed when they ran into the road. The rest ended up getting hurt while they were playing in the street. Here are some safety tips to keep you safe:

Tip 1. Only cross the street at a crosswalk. Follow the lights and always walk on the sidewalk. If there is no sidewalk, you should walk close to the edge of the road.

Tip 2. Everyone should follow the traffic rules. Parents should tell their children the traffic rules. Don't cross the road when the light turns red. Always cross the road when the light is green.

Tip 3. Don't play on the road. Don't run around or play ball games. Walk in a straight line when you cross the street.

Tip 4. Stop, look, and listen before you cross the road. Don't hurry. Look both ways before you cross the street. Be sure you are safe before you cross the street. Some cars may make turns. You should be careful even when the light is green.
